

COMMON READ

FALL 2022 EVENTS read - reflect - connect

"Claiming My Middle Name and Other Stories About the Power of Race"

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Featuring Professor Lauren Morimoto, Chair of Kinesiology Department. Interim President Mike Lee will provide introductory comments.

9/28

Faculty Panel: "What is Whiteness?"

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Featuring Professors Kim Hester-Williams (English and American Multicultural Studies), Theresa Burruel Stone (English), Don Romesburg (Women and Gender Studies), and Anthony Rizzuto (English)

10/26

From Universalism to Color Blindness : Let's Talk about Race in France

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Featuring Annabelle Alibert, Fulbright Language Teaching Assistant

11/16

So You Want to Talk about Place: Decolonizing and Indigenizing "Race Talk."

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Featuring Professor Mary Churchill (Native American Studies, American Multicultural Studies, Women and Gender Studies, and Liberal Studies)

11/30

ALL EVENTS IN THE STUDENT CENTER BALLROOMS

SONOMA
STATE UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF
DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

diversity.sonoma.edu

